

Constitution of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands

(‘Association’ Model Constitution)

Date of constitution (last amended): -

23rd February 2014

1. Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (“the CIO”) is

Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands

2. National location of principal office

The CIO must have a principal office in England or Wales. The principal office of the CIO is in England.

3. Object

The object of the CIO is:-

The advancement of the Vedic Dharma (Religion) and to promote the cultural, spiritual and educational needs of the community.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable.

4. Powers

The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its object or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO’s powers include power to:

- (1) establish and organise Vedic Religious Centres in the United Kingdom.

- (2) offer facilities for religious functions and the performance of all religious sacrament and to provide lecture and discussions on Vedic Religion.
- (3) run Day Centres for the benefit of senior citizens within the community, providing health, leisure, educational and catering facilities.
- (4) provide central places of worship with resident priests (Purohits) for the performance of religious ceremonies and functions, for conducting public worship and prayers and for providing religious and spiritual advice to the community.
- (5) establish and run educational centres to provide classes on Hindi and Sanskrit languages, Yoga, Computing and any other subject that is deemed to be benefit to any member of the community.
- (6) provide a library of religious, cultural and educational books and periodicals and establish a reference library on Vedic Religion by providing modern Vedic literature.
- (7) publish periodical and other literature for the propagation and advancement of Vedic Teachings.
- (8) facilitate and conduct Vedic marriages by the resident priest.
- (9) generally to do all acts as shall further the active and corporate life of the CIO and may lawfully be done by a body established only for the purposes recognised by the Law of England as Religious and charitable.
- (10) borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- (11) buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (12) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the CIO. In exercising this power, the CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;
- (13) employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the CIO. The CIO may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- (14) deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

5. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

- (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the CIO.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of the CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the CIO. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
- (a) a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission ("the Commission"). In this clause, a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way

- (b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The CIO and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the CIO and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

- (g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

(4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

(a) “the CIO” includes any company in which the CIO:

- (ii) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
- (iii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
- (iv) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

(b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause [30] (Interpretation);

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- (1) declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the CIO or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the CIO which has not previously been declared; and
- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up

If the CIO is wound up, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9. Membership of the CIO

(1) Admission of new members

(a) Eligibility

- (i) Membership is open to individuals over 18 years of age and who believe in aims and objects of the CIO and are approved by the Trustees.
- (ii) Membership of the CIO is open to anyone who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his, her or its agreement to become a member and acceptance of the duty of members set out in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

(b) Admission procedure

The charity trustees:

- (i) may require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;
- (ii) shall, if they approve an application for membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days by writing a letter or email.
- (iii) may refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interests of the CIO for them to do so;
- (iv) shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- (v) shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

(2) Transfer of membership

Membership of the CIO cannot be transferred to anyone else.

(3) Duty of members

It is the duty of each member of the CIO to exercise his or her powers as a member of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

(4) Termination of membership

- (a) Membership of the CIO comes to an end if :
 - (i) the member dies,
 - (ii) the member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or

- (iii) any sum of money owed by the member to the CIO is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
 - (iv) the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.
- (b) Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the CIO they must :
- (i) inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him or her from membership;
 - (ii) give the member at least 21 clear days' notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he or she should not be removed from membership;
 - (iii) at a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees, consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;
 - (iv) consider at that meeting any representations which the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
 - (v) allow the member, or the member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

(5) Membership fees

All ordinary members shall pay an annual subscription of £20 or such other amount as the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine.

(6) Membership of the CIO

Membership of the CIO shall be of the following kind:

- (1) ORDINARY MEMBERS: A person, who believes in the aims and objects of the CIO and who is 18 years old or over, shall be eligible for membership.
- (2) LIFE MEMBERS: Any ordinary member who pays the sum of £501 (five hundred and one pounds sterling) or such other amount as the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine is eligible to become a life member of the CIO
- (3) PATRON: Any ordinary or life member may be nominated as a patron by the Board of Trustee but approved at the Annual general meeting of the CIO. Only the ordinary or life member who has rendered distinguished services to the CIO and enhanced the work of the CIO should be nominated.

10. Members' decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (4) of this clause, decisions of the members of the CIO may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

(2) Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, any decision of the members of the CIO may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting.

(3) Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

- (a) Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:
 - (i) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
 - (ii) a simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature
- (b) The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members has signified their agreement.
- (c) Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of the CIO on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with paragraph (a) above.
- (d) Not less than 10% of the members of the CIO may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members.
- (e) The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if :
 - (i) The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
 - (ii) The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and

(iii) Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.

(f) Sub-clauses (a) to (c) of this clause apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

(4) Decisions that must be taken in a particular way

(a) Any decision to remove a trustee must be taken in accordance with clause 15(2).

(b) Any decision to amend this constitution must be taken in accordance with clause 29 of this constitution (Amendment of Constitution).

(c) Any decision to wind up or dissolve the CIO must be taken in accordance with clause 29 of this constitution (Voluntary winding up or dissolution). Any decision to amalgamate or transfer the undertaking of the CIO to one or more other CIOs must be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011.

11. General meetings of members

(1) Types of general meeting

There must be an annual general meeting (AGM) of the members of the CIO. An Annual General Meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause 13. All general meetings other than Annual general meeting shall be called Special General Meetings.

(2) Calling general meetings

(a) The charity trustees:

(i) The charity trustees may call a Special General Meeting at any time.

(ii) The charity trustees must call a Special General Meeting if requested to do so in writing by at least one fourth of the membership (Ordinary, Life members). The request must state the nature of the business that is to be discussed. If the charity trustees fail to hold the meeting within twenty one days of the request, the members may proceed to call a Special General Meeting without the participation of the charity trustees. The decision of the Special General Meeting will be binding on the charity trustees. In a Special General Meeting those members present will decide who will chair this meeting.

- (b) The charity trustees must, within 21 days, call a general meeting of the members of the CIO if :
 - (i) they receive a request to do so from at least 25% of the members of the CIO; and
 - (ii) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the member(s) making the request.
- (c) Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- (d) A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- (e) Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the members of the CIO must be held within 21 days from the date on which it is called.
- (f) If the charity trustees fail to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its members, then the members who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
- (g) A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 28 days after the date when the members first requested the meeting.
- (h) The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

(3) Notice of general meetings

- (a) The notice must be given to all the members (Ordinary, Life members) and to the charity trustees.
- (b) The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the CIO, must give at least 14 clear days' notice of any general meeting to all of the members, and to any charity trustee of the CIO who is not a member.
- (c) If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause (3)(a) of this clause have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- (d) The notice of any general meeting must :

- (i) state the time and date of the meeting;
 - (ii) give the address at which the meeting is to take place;
 - (iii) give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - (iv) if a proposal to alter the constitution of the CIO is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration;
 - (v) include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the CIO's website
- (e) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- (f) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.

(4) Chairing of general meetings

- (1) General meeting shall be chaired by the person who has been elected as Chair of the Board of Trustees.
- (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a trustee nominated by the trustees shall chair the meeting.
- (3) If there is only one trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

(5) Quorum at general meetings

- (1) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (2) A quorum is one fourth (25%) of membership entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting.

(3) No business shall be transacted at an annual or special general meeting unless a quorum of voting members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. One-fourth of Ordinary and Life members of the CIO shall constitute a quorum. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the Chairperson has a right to adjourn the meeting or to proceed with the meeting. The decision to adjourn or hold the meeting must be approved by the members present. If majority of members present decide for the meeting to go ahead the meeting is deemed to have been duly held and members present shall be the quorum. If members present decide to adjourn the meeting then chairperson must recall the adjourned meeting within 30 days at the time and place as the board of trustees or members in case of a Special General Meeting may determine, and is at adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be quorum.

(6) Voting at general meetings

- (a) Any decision other than one falling within clause 10(4) (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting. Every member has one vote.
- (b) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the members present in person.
- (c) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for the poll.
- (d) A poll may be taken :
 - (i) at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - (ii) at some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - (iii) through the use of postal or electronic communications.
- (e) In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a second, or casting vote.
- (f) Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.

(7) Adjournment of meetings

The chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

12. Charity trustees

(1) Functions and duties of charity trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

- (a) to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions as a trustee of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO; and
- (b) to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:
 - (i) any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having; and
 - (ii) if he or she acts as a charity trustee of the CIO in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.

(2) Eligibility for trusteeship

- (a) Every charity trustee must be a natural person.
- (b) No one may be appointed as a charity trustee:
 - if he or she is under the age of 18 years; or
 - if he or she would automatically cease to hold office under the provisions of clause 15(1)(f)
- (c) No one is entitled to act as a charity trustee whether on appointment or on any re-appointment until he or she has expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the charity trustees decide, his or her acceptance of the office of charity trustee.

(3) Number of charity trustees

- (a) There must be at least three charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.
- (b) The maximum number of charity trustees is 9. (including the office bearers) The charity trustees may not appoint any charity trustee if as a result the number of charity trustees would exceed the maximum.
- (4) The charity and its property shall be managed and administered by a committee comprising the officers and other members elected in accordance with this constitution to the Board of Trustees. The officers and other members of the Board shall be the Trustees of the charity and in this constitution are together called 'the Trustees'.
- (5) The charity shall have the following Officers:
- A Chairperson
 - A Secretary
 - A Treasurer
- (6) A Trustee must be a member of the Charity.
- (7) A Trustee will not appoint anyone to act on his or her behalf at meeting of the Trustees.
- (8) Any office bearer or the trustee must refrain from becoming office bearer or trustee of any other religious organisation registered in United Kingdom.

(9) First charity trustees

The first charity trustees of the CIO are –

- | | | |
|----|------------------------|-----------|
| 1. | Dr Narendra Kumar | Chairman |
| 2. | Dr Arvind Sharma | Secretary |
| 3. | Mr Harish Malhotra | Treasurer |
| 4. | Mr Krishan Chopra | |
| 5. | Dr Umesh Kathuria | |
| 6. | Mr Satya Prakash Gupta | |
| 7. | Mr Rajiv Datta | |
| 8. | Mr Shailesh Joshi | |
| 9. | Mr Sanjive Mahandru | |

- (10) The term of the elected Board of Trustees will be for a maximum period of twenty four months from the day of election and any office bearer cannot serve in the same capacity for more than two terms, he/she must have a break of one term from that particular office.

13. Appointment of charity trustees

- (1) The CIO in General Meeting shall elect the Officers and the other charity trustees.
- (2) No one may be elected a charity trustee or an officer at any annual general meeting unless prior to the meeting the charity is given a notice that:
- (a) Is signed by a member and seconded by another member entitled to vote at the meeting,
 - (b) Is signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his/her willingness to be appointed.
- (3) The appointment of a trustee, whether by the charity in general meeting, must not cause the number of trustees to exceed nine (three office bearers and six trustees).
- (4) The trustees may not appoint a person to be an officer if a person has already been elected or appointed to that office and has not vacated the office.
- (5) Casual vacancies arising among the office bearers or other members of the Board of Trustees may be filled by the Board of Trustees.
- (6) The members or the charity trustees may at any time decide to appoint a new charity trustee, whether in place of a charity trustee who has retired or been removed in accordance with clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees), or as an additional charity trustee, provided that the limit specified in clause 12(3) on the number of charity trustees would not as a result be exceeded;

14. Information for new charity trustees

The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment:

- (a) a copy of this constitution and any amendments made to it; and
- (b) a copy of the CIO's latest trustees' annual report and statement of accounts.

15. Retirement and removal of charity trustees

- (1) A charity trustee ceases to hold office if he or she :
 - (a) retires by notifying the CIO in writing (but only if enough charity trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings);
 - (b) is absent without the permission of the charity trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated;
 - (c) dies;
 - (d) in the written opinion, given to the CIO, of a registered medical practitioner treating that person, has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a trustee and may remain so for more than three months;
 - (e) is removed by the members of the CIO in accordance with sub-clause (2) of this clause; or
 - (f) is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 178-180 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).

- (2) A charity trustee shall be removed from office if a resolution to remove that trustee is proposed at a general meeting of the members called for that purpose and properly convened in accordance with clause 11, and the resolution is passed by a [two-thirds] majority of votes cast at the meeting

- (3) A resolution to remove a charity trustee in accordance with this clause shall not take effect unless the individual concerned has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to the members of the CIO.

16. Reappointment of charity trustees

Any person who retires as a charity trustee by giving notice to the CIO is eligible for reappointment.

17. Taking of decisions by charity trustees

Any decision may be taken either:

- at a meeting of the charity trustees; or
- by resolution in writing or electronic form agreed by all of the charity trustees, which may comprise either a single document or several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more charity trustees has signified their agreement.

18. Delegation by charity trustees

- (1) The charity trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee or committees, and, if they do, they must determine the terms and conditions on which the delegation is made. The charity trustees may at any time alter those terms and conditions, or revoke the delegation.
- (2) This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the charity trustees, but is subject to the following requirements –
 - (a) a committee may consist of two or more persons, but at least one member of each committee must be a charity trustee;
 - (b) the acts and proceedings of any committee must be brought to the attention of the charity trustees as a whole as soon as is reasonably practicable; and
 - (c) the charity trustees shall from time to time review the arrangements which they have made for the delegation of their powers.

19. Meetings and proceedings of charity trustees

(1) Calling meetings

The Board of Trustees may meet together for the dispatch of business and adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. The Board of Trustees shall hold one ordinary meeting each month and may hold such other ordinary meetings as may be required. A special meeting of the Board of Trustees may be summoned at any time by the Chairperson or any two members of the Board of Trustees upon seven days clear notice being given to all other members of the matters to be discussed. The Patron of the CIO will be invited to all such meetings.

(2) Chair of Meetings

The person elected as the Chairperson shall chair the meeting of the trustees.

(3) Procedure at Meetings

- (a) All trustees must maintain the confidentiality of the matters discussed in the meetings. Any breach of this will be taken very seriously and may result in dismissal of the guilty member of the Board of Trustees.
- (b) The trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of this constitution.
- (c) Minutes of the meeting shall be kept by the Board of Trustees and the Secretary (or in his/her absence by one of the trustee) shall enter therein a record of all the proceedings and resolutions. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson at the conclusion of each meeting or at some subsequent meeting if the minutes shall have been duly confirmed.
- (d) The Board of Trustees may invite any person to attend its meetings but without power to vote.
- (e) Any two trustees may call a meeting of the Board of Trustees.
- (f) The secretary must call a meeting of The Board of Trustee if requested to do so by two trustees.
- (g) Question arising at a meeting must be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- (h) No decision may be made by a meeting of the trustees unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made.
- (i) The quorum shall be five members of the Board of Trustees.
- (j) A trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter which that trustee is not entitled to vote.
- (k) If the chairperson is unwilling to preside or is not present with ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the trustee present may appoint one of their members to chair that meeting.
- (l) The charity trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities act 2011 with regards to keeping of accounts records for the charity, the preparation of annual statement of the accounts and the transmission of the statements of account to the commission

(4) Participation in meetings by electronic means

- (a) A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the charity trustees in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.
- (b) Any charity trustee participating at a meeting by suitable electronic means agreed by the charity trustees in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants shall qualify as being present at the meeting.
- (c) Meetings held by electronic means must comply with rules for meetings, including chairing and the taking of minutes.

20. Saving provisions

- (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) of this clause, all decisions of the charity trustees, or of a committee of charity trustees, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a charity trustee:
 - who was disqualified from holding office;
 - who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
 - who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

if, without the vote of that charity trustee and that charity trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the charity trustees at a quorate meeting.

- (2) Sub-clause (1) of this clause does not permit a charity trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the charity trustees or of a committee of charity trustees if, but for clause (1), the resolution would have been void, or if the charity trustee has not complied with clause 7 (Conflicts of interest).

21. Execution of documents

- (1) The CIO shall execute documents either by signature or by affixing its seal (if it has one).

- (2) A document is validly executed by signature if it is signed by at least two of the charity trustees.
- (3) If the CIO has a seal:
 - (a) it must comply with the provisions of the General Regulations; and
 - (b) it must only be used by the authority of the charity trustees or of a committee of charity trustees duly authorised by the charity trustees. The charity trustees may determine who shall sign any document to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise determined it shall be signed by two charity trustees.

22. Use of electronic communications

The CIO will comply with the requirements of the Communications Provisions in the General Regulations and in particular:

- (a) the requirement to provide within 21 days to any member on request a hard copy of any document or information sent to the member otherwise than in hard copy form;
- (b) any requirements to provide information to the Commission in a particular form or manner.

23. Keeping of Registers

Trustees must keep a register of names and address of the membership which must be made available to any member upon request.

24. Minutes

Minutes of the meeting shall be kept by the Board of Trustees and the Secretary (or in his/her absence by one of the trustee) shall enter therein a record of all the proceedings and resolutions. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson at the conclusion of each meeting or at some subsequent meeting if the minutes shall have been duly confirmed.

The charity trustees must keep minutes of all:

- (1) appointments of officers made by the charity trustees;
- (2) proceedings at general meetings of the CIO;

- (3) meetings of the charity trustees and committees of charity trustees including:
 - the names of the trustees present at the meeting;
 - the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - where appropriate the reasons for the decisions;
- (4) decisions made by the charity trustees otherwise than in meetings.

25. Accounting records, accounts, annual reports and returns, register maintenance

- (1) The charity trustees must comply with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 with regard to the keeping of accounting records, to the preparation and scrutiny of statements of accounts, and to the preparation of annual reports and returns. The statements of accounts, reports and returns must be sent to the Charity Commission, regardless of the income of the CIO, within 10 months of the financial year end.
- (2) The charity trustees must comply with their obligation to inform the Commission within 28 days of any change in the particulars of the CIO entered on the Central Register of Charities.

26. Rules

The charity trustees may from time to time make such reasonable and proper rules or bye laws as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the CIO, but such rules or bye laws must not be inconsistent with any provision of this constitution. Copies of any such rules or bye laws currently in force must be made available to any member of the CIO on request.

27. Disputes

- (1) If a dispute arises between members of the CIO about the validity or propriety of anything done by the members under this constitution, and the dispute cannot be resolved by agreement, the parties to the dispute must first try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation before resorting to litigation.
- (2) If legal proceedings of any kind are resorted to or defended by the CIO, the Trustees shall prosecute or defend such proceedings either in the name of the CIO or in the names of the Trustees or otherwise on behalf of the CIO as may be necessary.

28. Employees

The Board of Trustees shall have power to appoint and extend the contract if required and (within limits permitted by law) to dismiss such employees or agents as it may deem necessary for the effective administration of the CIO's affairs and the furtherance of its objects and to pay any such person (not being a member of the Board of Trustees) such reasonable remunerations as it may from time to time determine. No employee can be a member of the Board of Trustees. A subcommittee consisting of Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and two other trustees will directly be responsible to manage the Priest or Minister of Religion, the Office Manager and Cleaner or any other person employed by the CIO.

29. Amendment of constitution

As provided by clauses 224-227 of the Charities Act 2011:

- (1) This constitution can only be amended:
 - (a) by resolution agreed in writing by all members of the CIO; or
 - (b) by a resolution passed by a 75% majority of votes cast at a general meeting of the members of the CIO.
 - (c) Any proposal to alter this constitution must be delivered in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees not less than twenty eight days (28) before the date of the meeting at which it is to be considered. An alteration will require the approval of two-third majority of members present and voting at an annual or special general meeting. The notice of any meeting at which proposal to alter the constitution is to be considered shall give the wording of the proposed alteration.

On 25th June 2018 Dr. Narendra Kumar, Chairman of The Board of Trustees sent a Notice to The Secretary of The Board of Trustees for "Proposed Change in Constitution of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands for approval in AGM:

- a) Extension of number of terms of same Chairperson - According to Clause 12 paragraph (10) the term of the elected Board of Trustees is for a maximum period of twenty four months from the day of election and any office bearer cannot serve in the same capacity for more than two terms, he/she must have a break of one term from that particular office.

After a long discussion it was resolved that clause no. 12, Paragraph 10 of Constitution of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands should be amended to allow present chairman Dr. N. Kumar of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands to continue for another one term of 2 years from today to enable him to complete the unfinished project of the new home of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands at 321 Rookery Road, Handsworth, Birmingham, B21 9PR.

Out of 48 members present on the day of Annual General Meeting on 29th July 2018 39 members (81.25) voted in favor of amendment of Constitution to allow Dr. N. Kumar to work as a Chairman for another 2 years.

- (2) Any alteration of clause 3 (Objects), clause 30 (Voluntary winding up or dissolution), this clause, or of any provision where the alteration would provide authorisation for any benefit to be obtained by charity trustees or members of the CIO or persons connected with them, requires the prior written consent of the Charity Commission.
- (3) No amendment that is inconsistent with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011 or the General Regulations shall be valid.
- (4) A copy of any resolution altering the constitution, together with a copy of the CIO's constitution as amended, must be sent to the Commission within 15 days from the date on which the resolution is passed. The amendment does not take effect until it has been recorded in the Register of Charities.
- (5) No alteration of this constitution or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Trustees.

30. Voluntary winding up or dissolution

- (1) As provided by the Dissolution Regulations, the CIO may be dissolved by resolution of its members. Any decision by the members to wind up or dissolve the CIO can only be made:
 - (a) at a general meeting of the members of the CIO called in accordance with clause 11 (Meetings of Members), of which not less than 14 days' notice has been given to those eligible to attend and vote:
 - (i) by a resolution passed by a 75% majority of those voting, or
 - (ii) by a resolution passed by decision taken without a vote and without any expression of dissent in response to the question put to the general meeting; or
 - (b) by a resolution agreed in writing by all members of the CIO.
- (2) Subject to the payment of all the CIO's debts:
 - (a) Any resolution for the winding up of the CIO, or for the dissolution of the CIO without winding up, may contain a provision directing how any remaining assets of the CIO shall be applied.
 - (b) If the resolution does not contain such a provision, the charity trustees must decide how any remaining assets of the CIO shall be applied.
 - (c) In either case the remaining assets must be applied for charitable purposes the same as or similar to those of the CIO.

- (3) The CIO must observe the requirements of the Dissolution Regulations in applying to the Commission for the CIO to be removed from the Register of Charities, and in particular:
- (a) the charity trustees must send with their application to the Commission:
 - (i) a copy of the resolution passed by the members of the CIO;
 - (ii) a declaration by the charity trustees that any debts and other liabilities of the CIO have been settled or otherwise provided for in full; and
 - (iii) a statement by the charity trustees setting out the way in which any property of the CIO has been or is to be applied prior to its dissolution in accordance with this constitution;
 - (b) the charity trustees must ensure that a copy of the application is sent within seven days to every member and employee of the CIO, and to any charity trustee of the CIO who was not privy to the application.
- (4) If the CIO is to be wound up or dissolved in any other circumstances, the provisions of the Dissolution Regulations must be followed.
